

Alison Weir

Alison is the the author of a children's book, now out of print. These day she is most know for being the founder of If Americans Knew, an organization that provides information on topics of importance that are substantially misreported or unreported in the US media; our primary focus is on Israel-Palestine.

She is now also president of the Council for the National Interest, which works for "U.S. Middle East policies that represent the highest values of our founders and our citizens and that work to sustain a nation of honor, decency, security, and prosperity."

If Americans Knew analyzes media coverage of Israel-Palestine, and has conducted a number of statistical studies.

Alternate Focus, which produces videos for Public Access television stations, has produced an excellent 30-minute video about our studies.

Website: www.ifamericansknew.org

Alison's Blog: <http://alisonweir.org>