

About Catherine Austin Fitts

Catherine Austin Fitts' understanding of the global financial system and the inner workings of the Wall Street-Washington axis are unparalleled. As the former U.S. Assistant Secretary of Housing/Federal Housing Commissioner, Catherine was one of the first to warn of an approaching housing bubble. Her prediction that a 'strong dollar policy' would ultimately lead to a weakened federal credit is currently being proven correct.

The Solari Report goes behind the headlines to reveal what's really happening in the global financial system. Join Catherine Austin Fitts and her guests in weekly live briefings on Thursday at 6pm Pacific and learn how you can mitigate the toxic effects of manipulated money supplies. Through these hour-long briefings, you, your family, and your community will learn how to transform your relationship to finance, food, and health, and discover how to survive and thrive in changing times.

Website: solari.com