

Holland O. Van den Nieuwenhof ; Holland Van den Nieuwenhof is a native of Oklahoma and served as a rifle squad leader in the Marine Corps. Holland decided to get off the bench one day and started writing and passing out leaflets that exposed government corruption and cover-ups. These efforts led him to collaborate with the Oklahoma Bombing Investigation Committee in their efforts to uncover the truth behind the OKC bombing. He was instrumental in the formation of the first low-power FM station in Oklahoma that focused on truth and freedom issues. Holland engages in a variety of endeavors to spread awareness in his community
