

About L.A. Marzulli

L. A. Marzulli is the author of the Nephilim Trilogy. The Nephilim Trilogy made the CBA bestseller list and continues to thrill readers a decade after the first book in the series was published. Marzulli received an honorary doctorate from Pacific International University for his work on the Nephilim Trilogy.

Marzulli is also the author of the non fiction work, Politics, Prophecy & the Supernatural. The book packs a hard hitting expose of how the current political landscape may bring about ancient Biblical prophecies, which then may trigger supernatural events that are foretold in the book of Daniel and Revelation.

His latest offering, The Alien Interviews, features 17 personal, intense interviews with people who have been directly involved with the UFO phenomena. The book was written for the skeptic with various world-views presented as to what this phenomena may be.

Marzulli teamed up with film producer Richard Shaw to create the Watchers series. Their first offering Watchers 1: UFOs are Real, Burgeoning and Not Going Away, is in it's fifth printing, while Watchers 2: Signs in the Heavens and Earth, may be the only DVD that offers a Biblical answer to the off the charts weather activity that we are experiencing. With all the tornados, earthquakes of 7.0 and greater, flooding, riots and the rise of lawlessness, it's not business as usual!

Marzulli has lectured on this fascinating subject presenting his exhaustive research at conferences and churches as well as appearances and interviews on numerous national radio and television programs.
