

ABOUT PRODUCER/DIRECTOR NORM NOVITSKY (www.InSearchofLiberty.com)

Norm Novitsky is an independent filmmaker, producer and founder of BluNile Films and IC Liberty Films. He is known for his staunch support of the US Constitution, and his latest film project, In Search Of Liberty, introduces the U.S. Constitution to a wide audience. Norm has dedicated the past several years to raising concern over the corruption of the nation's founding principles by an ever-expanding government and a need to restore the primacy of the U.S. Constitution and its rule of law.

In 1998 Norm enrolled in film school, where he wrote, produced and directed two short independent films before setting off as an independent film producer. As head of BluNile Films, he executive-produced a teen suspense thriller, Pray for Morning, released in 2006, while as managing member of IC Liberty Films, he is exec-producing and directing In Search of Liberty.
