

RAMIEL NAGEL - Dental Health Advocate

Ramiel Nagel is an internationally published author whose tooth decay research has been featured in Nexus Magazine and the Townsend Letter for Doctors and Patients. Nagel has a BA from the University of California and has ten years of training in emotional health care. Nagel is a member of the Price-Pottenger Nutrition Foundation and the Weston A. Price Foundation. He lives in Oregon with his spouse and two daughters.

At the age of one, my daughter began suffering from tooth decay. At the same time, my teeth were also infected with up to four cavities. I know what it is like to feel stress from tooth decay because I have experienced it first hand. Worse than the stress of my own cavities, were my young daughter's rapidly decaying teeth about which I felt powerless.
