

About Rob West

The author Rob West continues five decades in the financial arena as Co-founder of RME Advisors, LLC (www.RMEAdvisors.com) and The Financial Preservation Network, LLC. He is Senior Financial Strategist for both companies. RME is a financial education and research company that does not sell financial products.

Rob became a Certified Financial Planner in 1982 three years after the College for Financial Planning was founded. He was a member of the adjunct faculty in the early years of the College. The decade of the 1980's opened the door during the Reagan years for Rob to experience those explosive times as a Stock Broker/CFP/Investment Officer representing national Wall Street investment firms. He resigned a Vice President position in 1990 to open an independent investment advisory company. In addition to the advisory service he also offered Estate Planning Para Legal Services, Trust Services and Insurance Services.

Rob's practice incorporated in house Attorney and CPA Services and certain specialty Asset Protection Services based upon a Financial Education Platform. Rob is now retired from professional practice. Although retired from professional practice Rob believes the people of America deserves better financial education.

Rob West recently engaged our AmericaAgain.net initiative as Director of Development; he is a very longtime Power Hour listener who learned of AA! from The Power Hour. Rob is tapping his skills, experience and contacts from a career as a financial planner, to spread our AA! mission from coast to coast. He just did a major driving tour from Colorado to Virginia to Ohio to Missouri and back, for AmericaAgain!. Rob has become an incredible partner to this mission, and he's only just begun.
