

Sandy Rideout is a Certified Functional Medicine Practitioner working with chronically ill patients referred to him by physicians and those who have chosen to reach out to him directly.

Functional Medicine is a dynamic, systems-based approach to assessing, preventing and treating complex chronic disease. Using this approach, Sandy identifies